

Australian Veterinarians in Public Health

ONE HEALTH WORKSHOP

Do you care about public health, biosecurity, and becoming involved in the rapidly building ONE HEALTH PARADIGM?

Want to network with leading professionals from organisations such as QLD Health and Biosecurity QLD AND earn some continuing ed points while you're at it?

Join us on May 29th for the inaugural Australian Veterinarians in Public Health ONE HEALTH WORKSHOP where Dr Simon Reid from the UQ School of population health will take us on a journey through the public health system of Australia, introduce us to one health and epidemiology concepts and conduct interactive sessions based on real life scenarios.

Where: Arbor room (Meeting room P2), plaza level of the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

When: 9.00am- 4.30pm Friday May 29th 2015

Cost:

AVA/NZVA member: $60

SIG/SIB member: $50

AVA/NZVA student member: $50

Non-member: $120

Register at <http://conference.ava.com.au/>

Please note: you do not have to attend the AVA Pan Pacific conference in order to attend this workshop

